Dedicated to my beloved Dusty Strings Dance Band, formed in 2014 under Sarah Comer's leadership. This band, also known as the Buffalo Chickens, created with me the best experiences in my life and taught me what real friendship means.

Some of the Dm chords can be replaced with Bb7. The major part is played the second time through, but players can feel free to mix up major and minor parts for fun, or play solely minor or major. The dotted rhythm can be straightened out to make this tune a slow reel or a hoedown. Not to be medleyed with Shoot the Buffalo Schottische, or Come Through the Canebreak to Shoot the Buffalo, or any buffalo-shooting and chicken-cooking tunes...unless you have the heart to see the chicken or buffalo roam all alone in the world without its buddy.
